

JESÚS MOROLES (1950-2015)

Black Broken Earth

black Canadian granite

18 1/2 x 18 1/2 x 9 1/2 in.

2003

15850

PROVENANCE:

McClain Gallery, Houston, Texas

Private Collection, Houston, Texas

Jesús Bautista Moroles (September 22, 1950 – June 15, 2015) was an American sculptor, known for his monumental abstract granite works. He lived and worked in Rockport, Texas, where his studio and workshop were based, and where all of his work was prepared and finished before being shipped out for installation. In 2008, he was awarded the National Medal of Arts. Over two thousand works by Moroles are held in public and private collections in the United States, China, Egypt, France, Italy, Japan, and Switzerland.

The information and material herein represents Gallery's best efforts and understanding of the current history and scholarship with respect to the provenance of the Work(s) of Art described and is not part of any warranty.

