Not my work can't be dated
John Hubbard Rich

In 1945 or '46 I had the delight of posing for John Hubbard Rich at his studio (2212 San Marco Dr., Hollywood, Cal.). Sometime Mrs. Rich (Helen) would bring her sewing into the studio at her work, and one day during the sittings, she + John gave me lunch. They were good days. Some time later, John sent me this painting, a copy to Ed Matta, she had the paintings for which I had posed. He even made the picture for it. I have treasured this painting from the hand of my first teacher + an admired master and friend.
