Joan Nelson paints detailed intimate paintings of nature, landscape, and sky. Nostalgic and mystical, the paintings make a quiet reference to mythic narrative, not telling the story outright, but hinting at its passing. Her works are represented in public and private collections, including the Brooklyn Museum, New York; the Museum of Modern Art, New York; Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, New York, the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, Washington, DC; the Museum of Fine Arts Boston, among others.

The information and material herein represents Gallery's best efforts and understanding of the current history and scholarship with respect to the provenance of the Work(s) of Art described and is not part of any warranty.
